

Southeast Unitarian Universalist Summer Institute (SUUSI)

That sound you hear - it's not the cicadas, yet. It's not the summer thunderstorm, yet. Instead, it's the murmur of 1,000 voices saying

"Yes, I'm going to SUUSI on July 22..."

Some are coming because of the connections they have built over the years, to renew the friendships and recreate a community that's unique in their lives. Others will be coming for the first time because they have heard the enthusiasm, and seen the sparkle in the eyes, when "old SUUSI -ites" talk about the experience.

SUUSI has been a rich and rewarding experience, as well as a low-cost family experience, for over 50 years. Won't you come this year?
