TEENS

Please join the SUUSI Teens in boycotting our local 7-11 store. Teens have been treated very poorly by store employers this week based solely on their age and appearance. Once, the manager referred to them as "those Unitarians" to a SUUSI member who asked her about the incident. Details will follow in tomorrow evening's edition of the SUUSI NUUS, including information on how you can help make sure this is addressed by the 7-11 corporation.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH

Worship - "We Are The Boat We Are The Sea Interdependence And Economic Anti-Calvinism." Rev. David Herndon, minister of First Unitarian church in Pittsburgh, PA..

Thursday evening worship is our blessing and bridging ceremony. If you brought a baby to SUUSI please contact Alane Cameron Miles at worship or leave message at INFOffice.

WORKSHOPS -

Have you decided on your workshop for 2002 yet? There's still time to turn in an "ideas" form. We will be contacting you as soon as possible after SUUSI to send you the "official" proposal form (simpler, we promise than last year's!) Or—you may grab a copy from the SUUSI website (www.suusi.org).

BUT—time is important! Your official proposal MUST reach us NO LATER THAN NOVEMBER 1, 2001. We must know our need for space for SUUSI 2002 quite early in the year, so the November 1 deadline is just not flexible, unfortunately, and ALSO applies to any of you who are leading a workshop this year, and want to repeat it in 2002.

REMEMBER—idea forms available now, turn in before the end of SUUSI Proposal forms must be received BY NOVEMBER 1!!! If you have questions, see Jeani Jessen (Payne 204).

RANDOM ACTS OF KINDNESS

Community Works!!!

My many thanks to all of you for making my SUUSI grand despite a bumpy start. Special thanks to Lori Winter for new "driving" gloves. Thanks to Reinhold Bever-Tajovsky for a jumbo bottle of Tylenol, to Pat Harris for offering to drive my truck and equipment back to my house, to those who gave me a push every day, and to Mary Vass for helping me pack up my AV equipment each day. Wish we could have SUUSI all year. [I had the presence of mind to save my own ice cream cone and enjoy it, while waiting for the ambulance to haul me off.] Love and Thanks, Craig Johnson

During the Fun Run on Tuesday morning, Michelle Hyde-Wright, age 11, stopped competing to help her friend, Sarah Schmade, age 10 who suffered an unexpected nosebleed. Michelle stayed with her friend until they both crossed the finish line. Parents, Charles & Janet Hyde-Wright, were already gone on a bike ride and heard about this story from Sarah's mother, Peggy, who declared "you would be proud of her". I was indeed proud that my daughter chose to be helpful and honor friendship over competition. Janet Hyde-Wright

SUUSI Core Staff purchased new, delicate teacups and saucers for Pat Mercer's long-running #518 Afternoon Herb Tea Thursday (2-4. in NRW). Pat prepares for her workshop by tending her herb garden, and participating in the herb society. She spends hours collecting supplies/flowers and preparing for this workshop. The old cups and saucers we rented were too heavy. Pat cried when presented with the new ones, saying it was so meaningful that as a group the Core Staff recognized her efforts for this culinary treat.

Barb Howard.

NATURE

This year, several people have missed their nature trips because they arrived several minutes (or more) after the advertised time of departure. PLEASE PLEASE, remember to check your brochure for the correct departure time, and BE THERE 10 MINUTES EARLY! Our trip leaders are told to leave on time and we really don't want to leave anyone behind. All nature trips (except on campus talks) meet at the Nature tent/table. Talks meet at NRW, room B-6 (2nd floor).

ACCESSIBILITY

Star Car to Teen Show – Friday Night

If you need Star Car service to and from TWOB, you must see Nancy Mayer or Dave Salman or leave a message for the Star Car at the INFOffice before 8p Thursday. Leave your name and dorm/room number and indicate whether you will get yourself to the Nature Van parking area behind Slusher before 7:10 Friday or need a cart ride (and where from) at 6:50p Friday to Slusher. We will all go together from Slusher to Burruss for the show.

MUG BOOK

We need volunteers with Mug Book distribution on Thursday and Friday. Sign up sheet is on the board at Payne. Mug Books will be distributed Thursday dinner and Friday lunch. Note: no airlines were involved, and no skeets were harmed. (One year Delta delivered it after SUUSI ended.) Richard Hallmark chief mugger

OTHER

Volunteers For Key Return

We need help when everybody returns room keys from 8-11a Saturday. Key return will be in the Payne breezeway.

Did you get a message? Want to mail a letter? Check the message board at Payne – some notes are still dated from Saturday. There's a maildrop there for loveletters home (or postcards...)

Lost

A small amethyst stone has been lost most likely in the dining hall. If you found it please leave for Nilsa Lobdell, the owner, is in room NRE 362.

Ron For Life!

Yes, there have been cures with the treatment I am seeking. See – www.concerned.com

SUUSI Store

Come visit the SUUSI store (in the second floor crossover lounge of Payne) between 10:00a-

6:00p today and browse through our great but shrinking collection of SUUSI books, music and logo items. Don't wait till the last minute only to discover that the things you really wanted are sold out.

We also have lots of good used books left. At $1.00 each, with the total amount going for SUUSI-ships, they are a super deal for both you and SUUSI! Also remember, you get a free SUUSI CD with a $10.00 purchase.

Special Singings and signings scheduled at the SUUSI Store for your enjoyment are:

Dave Nachmanoff	Thursday	12:00-1:00p
Kim & Reggie Harris	Thursday	1:00-2:00p
Amy Carol Webb	Friday	1:00-2:00p

If there are any other performers or authors that would like to sign up for a special signing time in the SUUSI store, just come by between 10:00a and 6:00p., or catch us in the Owens lobby during concert hour or Cabaret.

If you need additional assignments or a replacement form go to the INFOffice when your form is completed leave it in the SUUSIship box. If you forget to leave it please mail it to me as soon as possible after you arrive home. Priscilla Phillips

Peace from within

Here, away from daily strife
That haunts me in my other life
Here with friends who want to play
And have no cares for yesterday,

Family, work and local fun
Are still there-yes everyone
But here's my chance to get away
And store up joy for another day.

A stretch beyond what I can be
I find no limits to being free.
My body's aches are just a test
And I can live with all the rest.

Come and celebrate with me.
All the things here at SUUSI
That help us be so very much more
Than we ever thought we'd be before.

Kate Crouch

We have over 1000 people registered for SUUSI this year. 250 participants are 17 years or younger which is a solid foundation of a family camp. (Long ago, we had 1400 people at SUUSI and it was too much like a crowd than a community..)
